

Hancock County School-Based Prevention Programs- 2006-2007

Grade Level	Program Name	Presenting Organization	Contact Info	Description	Misc. Information
Pre-school	Dinosaur School	Family Resource Centers	Prevention Office 419-422-8616	10-18 session presentation using puppets to help pre-schoolers with positive social skills, accepting time outs, expressing feelings, making friends, etc.	Uses the social skills curriculum from Incredible Years.
Pre-school	Personal Safety	Findlay Police Department	Crime Prevention Office, 419-424-7282	Personal safety issues (seatbelts, cruiser tour, stranger danger, 911, gun safety)
Preschool – K	“My Surroundings and Me” #1 & #2 Teaches Responsibility	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Teaches young children about their environment, focuses on land, air and water.	Children learn through songs and activities. This course is made up of six 30-minute sessions. (#2 focuses on pollution)
Preschool – K	“I’m a Healthy Kid” Teaches Caring, Respect and Responsibility	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Teaches young children about staying healthy, caring for others, good manners and friendships.	Children learn through interactive songs and activities. This course is made up of six 30-minute sessions.
Preschool – K	“I’m Safe & Sure” Teaches Responsibility and Citizenship	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Teaches young children responsibility for their personal safety and encourages the development of good citizenship skills.	Puppets are used to help teach the children how to avoid becoming victims of crime and how to keep themselves safe from potentially dangerous situations. This course consists of six 30-minute sessions.
Preschool – K	“I’m a Special Kid” Teaches Caring and Respect	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Teaches young children they are special and that differences are okay.	This course uses songs and games to teach children how feelings are a big part of all of us.

Hancock County School-Based Prevention Programs- 2006-2007

Grade Level	Program Name	Presenting Organization	Contact Info	Description	Misc. Information
Pre-school to 8 th	Dental Center of Northwest Ohio	Oral Health Education	LaDeana Pierce 419-422-7664	Age appropriate education on brushing, flossing, soda pop, nutrition & snacking, identification & prevention of dental diseases	Also have interactive displays for health fairs
K-2	BABES (Beginning Alcohol & Addictions Basic Education Series)	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	Through puppetry and dialogue girls and boys learn about self image, coping skills, alcohol & drug information, decision making, asking for help, peer pressure, helping others.	Program cost is $12/student (can be provided at a nominal fee) One 30-45 minute session once a week for three to six weeks.
K-2	Chick Embryology	OSU Extension Office	419-422-3851	Students can learn about chick development.	Program schedule set by egg cycle and egg availability. Need advance registration.
K-6 th	A Gift of Giving Teaches Caring, Citizenship and Responsibility	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	A service-learning program that helps students learn and develop through active participation in developing a community service project.	The age-appropriate curriculum centers on generating ideas, gathering information, and planning and organizing a project that meets the needs of their community.
K-6 Boys & Girls	Seekers, Discovers and Challengers	Learning for Life Division (Boy Scouts of America)	419-422-4356 ext. 125	Each program has been developed to meet the critical needs of schools and communities. It supports schools in their efforts to prepare youth to successfully handle the complexities of today's society.	It enhances social and life skills by teaching youth positive character traits. Sample lessons are: Respect, Honesty, Self-Discipline, and Citizenship. Life Skills: Classic Lit., Clean Air and Water, Communication, Youth Protection and much more
Elementary	Eat Smart, Play Hard	OSU Extension Office	419-422-3851	6 sessions focus on nutrition and exercise for a healthy body	Provided to every grade at Northview- now expanding.

Hancock County School-Based Prevention Programs- 2006-2007

Grade Level	Program Name	Presenting Organization	Contact Info	Description	Misc. Information
1 st – 3 rd	“Count on Me Kids” Teaches Caring and Citizenship	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	A self-esteem/drug prevention program that helps young children develop a strong positive self-image and character traits.	The six 30-minute sessions emphasize the importance of a health lifestyle and encourages youngsters to do their best.
1 st -5 th Boys Only	Academics/Sports	Boy Scouts of America	419-422-4356 ext. 125	A combination of social studies, math, science and nature while learning sports that enhance the character of the youth.	Fun and Exciting learning and playing skills that promote self-esteem and character development.
1 st – 8 th	Family Violence	Open Arms Domestic Violence & Rape Crisis Services	419-420-9261	5 sessions that focus on personal safety- helping kids recognize and avoid abuses, especially sexual abuse.
1 st – 8 th	Cycles and Recycles	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	Students will study the different ways in which ecosystems and people recycle. Games, activities and a hike focus on natural cycles and decomposition.	Can be adapted to age level and to teacher needs. Ask for Kelda.
1 st – 8 th	Water and Conservation	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	Learn about the vital role water has in our world. Students will learn about the water cycle, different sources of water, and water pollution. There will be an emphasis on the need for conservation and what we can do as individuals.	Can be adapted to age level and to teacher needs Ask for Kelda.
1 st – 8 th	EPS (Environmental Problem Solving)	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	Students will work in groups or the class as a whole to tackle current environmental issue. There will be extensive discussion the subjects and then students will brainstorm and work as a team to come up with possible solutions.	Can be adapted to age level and to teacher needs Ask for Kelda.
1 st – 8 th	Plants and Seeds	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	Students will learn about photosynthesis, plant life cycles, seed distribution, how plant structures are related to function, and interactions between plants and animals. Depending on the time of year, students can enjoy a wildflower hike as well.	Can be adapted to age level and to teacher needs Ask for Kelda.

Hancock County School-Based Prevention Programs- 2006-2007

Grade Level	Program Name	Presenting Organization	Contact Info	Description	Misc. Information
1 st – 8 th	Oil Up!	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	What do carpet, gasoline and body lotion have in common? They all contain oil/petroleum. Come and learn about the characteristics of this natural resource and how our need for oil impacts our lives and the environment. We'll create an oil spill and attempt to clean it up as girls do fun experiments to expand their knowledge on this valuable raw material. Also, troops will compete to see who packed their dinner in the most environmentally sound way.	Can be adapted to age level and to teacher needs Ask for Kelda.
1 st – 8 th	Arts From Nature	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	Using your “artistic” goggles, adapt and create art pieces from objects and items found in nature. Various options available—call Kelly for details!	Can be adapted to age level and to teacher needs. Call Kelly for details.
1 st – 8 th	Art Masterpieces	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	Learn about Georgia O'Keefe and her flower paintings and then make personalized flowers based on her works.	Can be adapted to age level and to teacher needs. Call Kelly for details.
1 st – 8 th	The Drama of Art	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	In some of the famous paintings, what were those people doing, thinking, and saying? Using artpieces, participants will investigate and then create a play based on the dynamics of the piece.	Can be adapted to age level and to teacher needs. Call Kelly for details.
1 st – 8 th	Great Explorations: Investigating Artifacts	Girl Scouts of Appleseed Ridge, Inc.	1-800-96A-PPLE www.gsar.org	Archaeology digging equipment, "artifacts", midden and Native American myths	Per person expense for materials Call Kelda for details
2 nd – 4 th	“I Can Do It” #1 & #2 Teaches Responsibility and Citizenship	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Children learn self-help skills such as escaping a fire, making healthy snacks, personal hygiene, using the telephone, being their own best friend and handling emergencies.	(protecting themselves, escaping a fire, bicycle safety and resolving conflicts are included in #2) Courses are made up of six 45-minute sessions

Hancock County School-Based Prevention Programs- 2006-2007

Grade Level	Program Name	Presenting Organization	Contact Info	Description	Misc. Information
2 nd – 4 th	“The Art of Friendship” Teaches Caring, Respect and Responsibility	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Helps children develop an understanding of peers and how to resolve conflicts.
2 nd – 4 th	“Talking with TJ – Conflict Resolution Series” Teaches Respect and Responsibility	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Sessions teach the most important skills for getting along with others and resolving problems without violence.	Through the program, children learn skills of planning, cooperating, and appreciating differences. This course encourages children to play together in more caring and cooperative ways.
3 rd	Safety Belt Program	HC Sheriff’s Office, Student Resource Officers	HC Sheriff’s Office, SRO Office 419-429-7301	Explanation of seat belt safety.
3 rd	We Recycle	OSU Extension	419-422-3851	Contact OSU Extension for details
3 rd	Student Safety	Findlay Police Department	Crime Prevention Office, 419-424-7282	Uses the FCS Virtues (Peer Pressure, Tobacco, Just Say No, Getting Along, Communication, Seat Belt Safety, respect for self, responsibility, tour of cruiser)
3 rd – 4 th	Breads of the Harvest	OSU Extension Office	419-422-3851	Learn the history of bread and bread making.	Students will make pancakes at completion of session.
3 rd – 5 th	“Talking with TJ – Teamwork Series” Teaches Respect and Responsibility	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Session teach the most important skills for getting along with others and resolving problems without violence.	Children learn to manage anger & use alternative to violence, respect different points of view in the resolving of a problem, & use friendly words to communicate feelings and ideas.

Hancock County School-Based Prevention Programs- 2006-2007

Grade Level	Program Name	Presenting Organization	Contact Info	Description	Misc. Information
4 th	Word of Mouth	Family Resource Centers	Prevention Office 419-422-8616	4 sessions of 40 minutes each about myths/truths of tobacco use. Helps kids set goals about staying tobacco free and how to use appropriate refusal skills to against peer pressure.
4 th	I'm Too Good for Drugs	Family Resource Centers	Prevention Office 419-422-8616	Skills training group for children who have been or may be exposed to alcohol pressure.	Used mainly in health classes. This is a grant funded program. Used in both city and county schools.
4 th – 5 th	“I'm Peer Proof”	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Youth learn positive friendships skills, how to act assertive and how to resist negative peer pressure.	A video “What Would I Do” showing five scenarios with peer pressure is used during this course.
5 th – 8 th	“I'm Taking Care” Teaches Responsibility		419-422-5415	Teaches good babysitting skills to boys and girls. Includes information and skills that young people need to know in order to be responsible for younger children.	Topics include: safety, strategies for handling behavior, diapering and feeding infants, as well as ideas for entertaining children. A workbook is included.
5 th – 12 th	“Portable Challenge Course”	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Teaches a series of “challenges” designed to promote trust, self-confidence, teamwork, and leadership. Elements in this “challenge” are created to challenge mental rather than physical capabilities	People of all imaginable weights and degrees of physical fitness have completed this course successfully.
6 th	Conflict Resolution	Findlay Police Department	Crime Prevention Office, 419-424-7282	Tour of Department, respect, marijuana, alcohol, peer pressure, crime & the law, teen pranks, Police Academy, CSI, Canine, Accident Reconstruction
6 th -8 th	“Project Taking Charge” Teaches Caring, Respect and Responsibility	Camp Fire USA	419-422-5415	Teaches curriculum focusing on imparting information and values that teens need complete in order to successfully encounter the development tasks of adolescence and evolve into mature, socially acceptable adults.

Hancock County School-Based Prevention Programs- 2006-2007

Grade Level	Program Name	Presenting Organization	Contact Info	Description	Misc. Information
6 th -10 th	Alcohol 101	Family Resource Centers	Prevention Office 419-422-8616	5 sessions of 40 minutes each to help students understand the truth/myths of alcohol and ways to avoid addiction for a lifetime.
7 th -12 th	Abstinence Program	Women's Resource Center	419-424-9575	Educational presentations about abstinence until marriage & STD. Birth control information could also be presented if requested.	7-12 grade
8 th	Crime & the Law	Findlay Police Department	Crime Prevention Office, 419-424-7282	Topics include: alcohol, drugs, criminal conduct, conflict resolution, teenage safety, cultural diversity and peer pressure
10 th	Taste of Reality	OSU Extension	419-422-3851	Contact OSU Extension for details.
11 th	Personal Safety	Findlay Police Department	Crime Prevention Office, 419-424-7282	Topics include: Constitutional Law, alcohol/drug information, vehicle laws (Fatal Vision Goggles), gangs, identify theft, identify fraud
Thru 12 th	Constitutional Law	Findlay Police Department	Crime Prevention Office, 419-424-7282
High School Youth	Navigators Program	Learning for Life Division (Boy Scouts of America)	419-422-4356 ext. 125	A classroom based program to help high school students develop good habits of character as well as explore the post-secondary/career options available	Classroom Speakers CD-ROM Workshop series. A Personal Compass To Daily Living, A Roadmap For The Future.
16-21 year olds	Money Management	OSU Extension	419-422-3851	Real World/Real Money Workshop	Grant funded and in all schools. Similar to the Taste of Reality program by WFIN/WKXA
High School & college level	Date Rape & Dating Violence	Open Arms Domestic Violence & Rape Crisis Services	419-420-9261	Sessions include information about staying safe and what to do if you are needing help

Hancock County School-Based Prevention Programs- 2006-2007

Grade Level	Program Name	Presenting Organization	Contact Info	Description	Misc. Information
All grades	GENERAL	HC Sheriff's Office, Student Resource Officers	HC Sheriff's SRO Office 419-429-7301	Presentations: alcohol, drugs, personal safety, law enforcement topics (job descriptions, laws, enforcement)	These are independent programs that are at the request of the schools.
All grades	Y.I.E.L.D. (Young Individuals Educating Local Drivers)	HC Sheriff's Office, Student Resource Officers	HC Sheriff's SRO Office 419-429-7301	Y.I.E.L.D. is a group of teens from Hancock County and Findlay City Schools who meet monthly to discuss key issues (stop signs, seat belts, etc.).	These youth are available for presentations about general driving information and safety.
All grades	Quarter Campaign	United Way of Hancock County	419-423-1432	Fundraising activity for schools. All money collected stays in schools	Donation based on grade of age of the child.
All grades	Food Safety, Nutrition & Parenting	OSU Extension	419-422-3851
All Grades	Eating Disorders	Family Resource Centers	Prevention Office, 419-422-8616		Individual Presentation upon request
Girls and Boys with handicap's.	Champions Program for Special-Needs Students	Learning for Life Division (Boy Scouts of America)	419-422-4356 ext. 125	Help educators instruct students with mental disabilities in life skills they need to achieve self-sufficiency and succeed as independent and integral people in society	57 lesson plans that provide special needs youth with daily living skills. Safety, Parts of the Body, Wellness, Nutrition. 24 transitional lesson plans like: Managing Finances, Seeking a Job, Decisional-Making Skills.
Girls and Boys 7 th and 8 th Grades	Builders Program	Learning for Life Division (Boy Scouts of America)	419-422-4356 ext. 125	A classroom-based program to help seventh and eighth grade students begin an in-depth assessment of their character and personal career search that supplements and enriches the standard core curricula.	Lessons are designed to reinforce social, ethical, academic and career education skills. 44 lessons such as: Character Education, Building Relationships, Citizenship Lessons and Career Education.

